NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Wednesday, July 7, 2021
11:15 A.M.

Room L-150, Cadillac Place Bldg.
3026 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, MI

The Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity will hold a public hearing to receive public comments on proposed changes to the Workers' Disability Compensation Appeals Commission General Rules rule set.

The rules apply to the practice and procedures before the Workers' Disability Compensation Appeals Commission under the workers' disability compensation act of 1969, 1969 PA 317, MCL 418.101 to 418.941. The Request for Rules specifically references Part 13, Subpart B (R 792.11314 – R 792.11321) of the Michigan Administrative Hearing System, Administrative Hearing Rules, currently located within Licensing and Regulatory Affairs – Michigan Office Of Administrative Hearings and Rules. As a result of Executive Order 2019-13, Part 13, Subpart B will be rescinded by MOAHR, and promulgated by LEO, Workers' Disability Compensation Agency. Some of the specific rules in Part 13, Subpart B will be updated to reflect changes in process and procedure.

By authority conferred on the chair of the workers' disability compensation appeals commission Section 274 of 1969 PA 317, MCL 418.274; and Executive Reorganization Order Nos. 1996-2, 1999-3, 2002-1, 2003-1, and 2019-13, MCL 445.2001, 418.3, 445.2004, 445.2011 and 125.1998. The proposed rules will take effect immediately after filing with the Secretary of State. The proposed rules are published on the State of Michigan web site at <http://www.michigan.gov/ARD> and in the Michigan Register in the 7/1/2021 issue. Copies of these proposed rules may also be obtained by mail or electronic transmission at the following address: campbelld5@michigan.gov.

Comments on these proposed rules may be made at the hearing or by mail or electronic mail at the following address until 7/7/2021 at 05:00 P.M.

man to denounce the Proud Boys, some of whom had taken part in the U.S. Capitol riot weeks earlier. The board had welcomed members of the group to a meeting the previous year to urge approval of a resolution designating Grand Traverse County a "Second Amendment sanctuary."

As the caller spoke, Clous stepped away from his webcam and returned with a rifle. He held it across his chest for about five seconds, then set it aside.

More than 1,500 people signed a petition demanding Clous' resignation. Some said the incident was threatening to racial minorities and had damaged the community's reputation, while others said it had been blown out of proportion.

operating with the investigation and there was no evidence drugs or alcohol was involved.

"The early investigation now indicates it looks like it was a tragic accident, but nobody's saying finally what it is," Rolli told The Associated Press in a phone interview.

The driver and the victims were a part of the Fort Lauderdale Gay Men's Chorus family, a small 25-member group of mostly older men.

"Our fellow Chorus members were those injured and the driver is also a part of the Chorus family. To my knowledge, this was not an attack on the LGBTQ community," President Justin Knight said in a statement Sunday, ing up, so there weren't as many parade-goers. "I was getting phone calls from people I knew at the other end waiting for the parade saying, 'Is this true? Is that true, do we have anything to worry about?' You don't know at that point."

Fort Lauderdale Police said no arrests have been made saying they are conducting a thorough investigation with the FBI, nothing in a statement they are "considering and evaluating all possibilities."

Trantalis, who is Fort Lauderdale's first openly gay mayor, initially told reporters the act was deliberate, adding to the confusion Saturday night.

"It terrorized me and all around me ... I feared it could be intentional based

A spokesman for the chorus said the director did not want to give interviews, adding that many members of the small group witnessed the fatal crash and were deeply shaken.

"The reason people like Wilton manors is the whole community is one big family and that's how we treat each other ... and this has really rattled a lot of people," said Rolli. "Even if it's an accident, just the loss of a life."

June is Pride Month, commemorating the June 1969 police raid targeting gay patrons at the Stonewall Inn in New York that led to an uprising of LGBTQ Americans and served as a catalyst for the gay rights movement.

3026 W Grand Blvd, Detroit, MI

The Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity will hold a public hearing to receive public comments on proposed changes to the Workers' Disability Compensation General Rules rule set.

The general purpose of these rules is to provide consumers with procedures and guidance for addressing workers' compensation claims, contested hearings, and workers' compensation insurance policies, in order to carry out the provisions of the Worker's Disability Compensation Act. The entire rule set will be updated for accuracy and procedural consistency. The rules will be revised to make necessary updates in order to facilitate the acceptance of electronic claims, insurance filings, and other reporting data, including use of secure and valid electronic signatures. Rules regulating attorney fees will be updated to reflect statutory changes in rate calculation and in response to case law. In addition, new rules will be added to this rule set to establish procedures for submitting and processing requests for review of redemption orders; provide procedures to implement requests under MCL 418.161(n); address issues raised by case law regarding overpayment reimbursement; require increased use of forms advising injured workers of rights and procedures. Rules regarding vocational rehabilitation will be updated to facilitate/provide for job search as required by statutory amendments and caselaw. Overall, language will be updated regarding the service of papers, vocational rehabilitation services, as well as general technical updates throughout.

By authority conferred on the director of the workers' disability compensation agency by section 205 of the worker's disability compensation act of 1969, 1969 PA 317, MCL 418.205, and Executive Reorganization Order Nos. 1996-2, 1999-3, 2002-1, 2003-1, and 2019-3, MCL 445.2001, 418.3, 445.2004, 445.2011, and 125.1998. The proposed rules will take effect immediately after filing with the Secretary of State.
