PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

R 339.101 Definitions.

Rule 101. (1) As used in these rules:

(a) "Act" means the Michigan unarmed combat regulatory act, 2004 PA 403, MCL 338.3601 to 338.3661a.

~~(b)~~ (b) "Department representative" means an employee of the department, as defined by section 10(1) of the act, MCL 338.3610, or an inspector approved by the department who ensures compliance with the law and rules at an unarmed combat event.

~~(c)~~ (c) "Down" means when any part of a boxer's body, except his or her feet, touches the ring floor, or when the boxer is hanging helplessly over the ropes as a result of a legal blow as ruled by the referee.

~~(d)~~ (d) "Drug" means a controlled substance as regulated under sections 7101 to 7231 of the public health code, 1978 PA 368, MCL 333.7101 to 333.7231, and any substance referenced in section 48(5)(a) of the act, MCL 338.3648.

~~(e)~~ (e) "Fight Record" means a record of a contestant's previous fight results, including, but not limited to, wins, losses, knockouts, and technical knockouts, and any other information required by the department.

~~(f)~~ (f) "Gong" means a bell, horn, buzzer, or other audible device approved by the department representative that has a clear tone loud enough for the contestants and referee to hear.

~~(g)~~ (g) "Grounded" means when a mixed martial artist has any part of the body, other than fingers and the soles of both feet, touching the fighting area floor. A mixed martial artist is grounded if the palm or closed fist of 1 hand, or any other body part, is touching the fighting area floor.

~~(h)~~ (h) "Kickboxing" means a form of boxing in which blows are delivered with the hand and any part of the leg below the hip, including the foot.

(i) "Manager" means a person who represents the interest of a second person, by contract, agreement, or other ~~arrangement~~ arrangements, in arranging for the establishment of a professional or amateur contest in which that second person shall participate as a contestant. An attorney licensed to practice in this state, if his or her participation is restricted solely to legal representation of the interests of an amateur or professional licensee, does not fall within this definition.

~~(i)~~ (j) "Mandatory count of 8" means a required count of 8 given by a referee to a boxer who has been knocked down.

~~(j)~~ (k) "Muay thai" means a form of boxing in which blows are delivered with the hand, elbow, any part of the leg below the hip, including the foot, and clinching.

(l) "No decision" means that neither contestant wins the contest.

~~(k)~~ (m) "Reinstatement" means the granting of a license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended as a result of a disciplinary action ~~in accordance with~~ pursuant to chapter 4 of the act, MCL 338.3640 to 338.3649a.

~~(l)~~ (n) "Relicensure" means the granting of a license to a person whose license has lapsed for failure to renew the license within 60 days after the expiration date.

~~(m)~~ (o) "Ring" or "cage" means the enclosure in which a contest takes place.

~~(n)~~ (p) "Sanctioned" means a contest approved by USA Boxing or a public body charged with overseeing unarmed combat contests.

~~(o)~~ (q) "Second" means an individual assisting a contestant during a contest, such as cornerman or a contestant's cutman, and may include a manager serving in that capacity. An impartial cutman is not a second.

~~(p)~~ (r) "Stalling and faking" means that a contestant is pulling his or her punches or holding an opponent or deliberately maintaining a clinch.

~~(q)~~ (s) "Standing mandatory count of 8" means a count of 8 given at the discretion of a referee to a boxer who has been dazed by a blow and is unable to defend himself or herself.

(2) The terms defined in the act have the same meanings when used in these rules.

R 339.104 Kickboxing and muay thai events and contests; applicability of act and Rules.

Rule 104. (1) All kickboxing and muay thai events must adhere to the requirements for boxing events in section 54a of the act, MCL 338.3654a.

(2) Unless specifically identified by these rules, all kickboxing and muay thai contests must adhere to the rules for boxing contests under part 2 of these rules.

(b) An active professional mixed martial artist license in this state or another state, territory, country, or tribal nation.

(c) The commission's approval based on proven competence.

(5) An applicant for a professional kickboxing or muay thai contestant license shall have the department's determination that he or she is able to compete as a professional contestant and either of the following:

(a) A record of having fought a minimum of 5 amateur contests. A kickboxing or muay thai applicant shall provide the department with contest results of 5 amateur contests.

(b) An active professional kickboxing or muay thai license in this state or another state, territory, country, or tribal nation.

(c) The commission's approval based on proven competence.

(6) All professional kickboxing or muay thai contestant licensees must obtain a boxer's federal identification card.

(2) The approved event officials listed in subrule 1 of this rule shall not in any manner publicly criticize or praise the performance of any other official 30 days before, during, or immediately after an unarmed combat event.

(3) The approved event officials shall not in any manner publicly criticize or praise the performance of any contestant 30 days before, during, or immediately after an unarmed combat event.

(4) The approved event officials shall not in any manner publicly criticize the appointment of any other event official 30 days before, during, or immediately after an unarmed combat event.

(5) The approved event officials shall refrain from communicating with a promoter or a promoter's employee before a contest or event unless the communications relate to travel accommodations, hotel accommodations, or compensation for their services as an event official.

(6) The approved event officials shall refrain from communicating with or establishing a financial relationship with a manager, second, trainer, or contestant 30 days before an unarmed combat event.

(7) The approved event officials are prohibited from placing wagers of any type on any event or contest involving unarmed combat.

Rule 205a. (1) A promoter shall ensure that a mixed martial arts ~~ring cage~~ meets all of the following requirements:

(a) The ~~ring cage~~ canvas must be no smaller than 18 feet by 18 feet wide and no larger than 32 feet by 32 feet. across.

(b) Two sides opposite of each other must have a designated color. One side must be blue; the opposite side must be red.

(c) The floor of the ~~ring cage~~ area must be padded with ensolite or another similar closed-cell foam, with at least a 1-inch layer of foam padding, with a top covering of canvas, duck, or similar material tightly stretched and laced to the platform of the ~~ring cage~~. Material that tends to gather in lumps or ridges must not be used.

(d) The platform of the ~~ring cage~~ must not be more than 4 feet above the floor of the building and must have suitable steps for use by the contestants and officials.

(e) ~~Ring Cage~~ posts must be made of metal, not more than 6 inches in diameter, extending from the floor of the building to 5 to 7 feet above the floor of the ~~ring cage~~, and ~~shall~~ must be properly padded in a manner approved by the department.

(f) The fencing used to enclose the ~~ring cage~~ must be made of a material that will prevent a contestant from falling out or breaking through the ~~ring cage~~ onto the floor of the building or onto spectators.

(g) Any metal portion on the interior of the ~~ring cage~~ must be covered and padded in a manner approved by the department and must not be abrasive to the contestants.

(h) The ~~ring cage~~ must have a minimum of 1 entrance. The entrance must be padded or covered so that there is not exposed metal on the interior of the ~~ring cage~~.

(i) There must not be any obstruction on any part of the ~~ring~~ cage surrounding the area in which the contestants are competing.

(j) Any metal parts used to enforce the ~~ring~~ cage wall must be positioned as to not interfere with the safety of the contestants.

(k) There must be an area of at least 4 feet between the ~~ring~~ cage and the first row of public seating that allows freedom of movement of contest officials and department personnel.

(2) The area immediately surrounding the ~~ring~~ cage is subject to the control of the department. Event security staff shall control access. The seating around the apron of the ~~ring~~ cage must not be sold. An area for credentialed media personnel may be allowed with the approval of the department.

(3) There must be adequate space provided in each contestant's corner for seconds to sit during a round.

(4) The department may request a promoter of a mixed martial arts event or contest to place at least 2 video screens that meet the approval of the department, which will allow patrons to view action inside the ~~ring~~-cage.

R 339.223b Injuries and cuts; kickboxing.

Rule 223b. (1) If an intentional foul causes an injury that is severe enough to terminate the contest immediately, the contestant causing the foul shall lose by disqualification.

(2) If the referee determines that a contest may continue despite an injury caused by an intentional foul, the referee shall immediately inform the department representative and the judges. The judges shall deduct the points as determined by the referee.

(3) If an injury caused by an intentional foul results in the contest being stopped later in the contest or a later round, the referee shall do either of the following:

(a) If the injured contestant is ahead in the scorecard, the referee shall declare the contestant winner by a technical decision.

(b) If the injured contestant is behind on or even on the scorecards, the referee shall declare the contest a technical draw.

(4) If a contestant injures himself or herself while attempting to intentionally foul his or her opponent, but can continue contesting, the referee shall take no action and treat the injury as if it was the result of a legal maneuver. If the referee determines the contestant who injured himself or herself while attempting an intentional foul is unable to continue to compete, the referee shall declare the contestant as having lost by a technical knockout or knockout.

(5) If an accidental foul causes an injury that is severe enough to terminate the contest immediately and a contest has not completed the rounds necessary to score a technical decision, the contest shall result in a no decision.

(6) If an accidental foul causes an injury severe enough to terminate the contest and the contest is considered official, the contest shall be awarded to the contestant ahead on the scorecards as a technical decision. For purposes of this subrule, "official" means when the contest completes 3 rounds of a 5 round contest or completed 4 rounds of any contest more than 5 rounds.

(7) If the injury from a contestant's accidental foul is not severe enough to immediately stop the contest but later becomes aggravated and causes the contest to be stopped, the contest shall be awarded to the contestant ahead on the scorecards as a technical decision.

(8) If the referee feels that a contestant has conducted himself or herself in an unsportsmanlike manner, the referee may stop the contest and disqualify the contestant.

(9) A physician shall immediately examine and administer aid to a contestant who is knocked out or injured, if, in the physician's professional judgment, there is a concern for the contestant's safety.

(10) If a contestant is knocked out or incapacitated, then the referee or second shall not handle the contestant, except for the removal of a mouthpiece, unless directed by the physician to do so.

(11) A contestant shall not refuse to be examined by a physician.

(12) A contestant who has been knocked out shall not leave the site of the event until 1 hour has elapsed from the time of the examination or until released by the physician.

(13) The attending physician shall file a written report with the department on each contestant who has been knocked out or injured.

Rule 223c. (1) If the referee determines that a contest may not continue because of an injury caused by an intentional foul, the contestant who committed the intentional foul loses by disqualification.

(2) If the referee determines that a contest may continue despite an injury caused by an intentional foul, the referee shall immediately inform the department representative and the judges and shall deduct 2 points from the score of the contestant who committed the intentional foul.

(3) If an injury caused by an intentional foul results in the contest being stopped in a later round, either of the following must occur:

(a) If the injured contestant is ahead on the scorecards, the contestant wins by technical decision.

(b) If the injured contestant is behind or even on the scorecards, the contest must be declared a technical draw.

(4) If a contestant injures himself or herself while attempting to foul his or her opponent, the referee shall not take any action in his or her favor and the injury must be treated the same as an injury produced by a fair blow.

(5) If a contest is stopped because of an accidental foul, the referee shall determine whether the contestant who has been fouled can continue or not. If the contestant's chance of winning has not been seriously jeopardized because of a foul and if the foul did not involve a concussive impact to the head of the contestant who was fouled, the referee may order the contest continued after a reasonable interval. Before the contest begins again, the referee shall inform the judges and department representative of his or her determination that the foul was accidental.

(6) If the referee determines that the contest may not continue because of an injury suffered as the result of an accidental foul, the contest must be declared a no decision if the foul occurs during the first 3 rounds of a contest that is scheduled for 6 rounds or less or the first 4 rounds if scheduled for more than 6 rounds.

(7) If an injury inflicted by an accidental foul later becomes aggravated by fair blows and the referee orders the contest stopped because of the injury, the outcome must be determined by scoring the completed rounds and the round during which the referee stops the contest.

(8) A physician shall immediately examine and administer aid to a contestant who is knocked out or injured, if, in the physician's professional judgment, there is a concern for the contestant's safety.

(9) If a contestant is knocked out or incapacitated, then the referee or second shall not handle the contestant, except for the removal of a mouthpiece, unless directed by the physician to do so.

(10) A contestant shall not refuse to be examined by a physician.

(11) A contestant who has been knocked out shall not leave the site of the event until 1 hour has elapsed from the time of the examination or until released by the physician.

(12) The attending physician shall file a written report with the department on each contestant who has been knocked out or injured.

Rule 225. (1) A contestant in a boxing contest who is knocked down shall take a minimum mandatory count of 8.

(2) If a contestant in a boxing contest is dazed by a blow and, in the referee's opinion, is unable to defend himself or herself, then the referee shall give a standing mandatory count of 8 or stop the contest. If on the count of 8 the contestant, in the referee's opinion, is unable to continue, then the referee may count him or her out on his or her feet or stop the contest on the count of 8.

(3) If there is a knockdown in a boxing contest, then the timekeeper shall immediately start the count loud enough to be heard by the referee, who, after waving the opponent to the farthest neutral corner, shall pick up the count from the timekeeper and proceed from there. The referee shall stop the count if the opponent fails to remain in the corner. The count shall be resumed when the opponent has returned to the corner.

(4) The timekeeper shall signal the count to the referee.

(5) If the contestant taking the count in a boxing contest is still down when the referee calls the count of 10, then the referee shall wave both arms to indicate that the contestant has been knocked out. The referee shall summon the physician and ~~shall~~ then raise the opponent's hand as the winner. The referee's count is the official count.

(6) If at the end of a round a contestant in a boxing contest is down and the referee is in the process of counting, then the gong indicating the end of the round ~~shall~~ must not be sounded, except for the last round. The gong ~~shall must~~ only be sounded sound when the referee gives the command to box indicating the continuation of the contest.

(7) In the final round, the timekeeper's gong ~~shall terminate~~ terminates the fight contest.

(8) A referee shall award a technical knockout decision to the opponent if a contestant is unable or refuses to continue when the gong sounds to begin the next round. The decision ~~shall be~~ is awarded in the round started by the gong.

(9) The referee and timekeeper shall resume their count at the point it was suspended if a contestant in a boxing contest rises before the count of 10 is reached and falls down immediately without being struck.

(10) If both contestants in a boxing contest go down at the same time, then counting ~~shall continue~~ continues as long as 1 of them is still down or until the referee or the ringside physician determines that 1 or both of the contestants need immediate medical attention. If both contestants remain down until the count of 10, then the contest ~~shall~~ must stop and the decision ~~shall be~~ is scored as a double knockout.

Rule 225a. (1) In the event of a knockdown, the referee shall send the standing contestant to a neutral corner and administer a mandatory 10 count to the downed contestant.

(2) For purposes of this rule, a knockdown is either of the following:

(a) When a contestant touches the mat with anything other than the soles of his or her feet as the result of a legal and damaging strike.

(b) When a contestant is in a defenseless position grabbing the opponent or hanging on or over the ropes.

(3) If a contestant goes down from what the referee indicates is a slip but fails to rise after the referee's repeated commands, the referee shall initiate a count of 10 and follow the procedures of a knockdown. If the contestant does not rise after a count of 10, the contest ends as a technical knockout.

(4) The referee shall have sole discretion in determining a knockdown versus a slip.

(5) If a contestant injures himself or herself and then fails to intelligently defend himself or herself by turning his or her back on the opponent, the referee may do either of the following:

(a) Treat the injury the same as one produced by a fair blow from the opponent and follow the procedures for a knockdown,

(b) Terminate the contest and declare the opponent winner by technical knockout.

(6) The 3-knockdown rule is in effect only when a contestant has been knocked down 3 times in the same round by strikes or kicks to the head. If a contestant is knocked down 3 times, the contest ends, and contestant is determined to have lost the contest by technical knockout.

(7) A standing 8 count in professional kickboxing or muay thai contests is not allowed.

(8) In an amateur kickboxing and muay thai contest, a referee may issue a standing 8 count to determine if a contestant can continue the contest.

(9) A contestant who has been knocked down shall not be saved by the bell in any round, including the final round.

R 339.226 Types of contest results for mixed martial arts events.

Rule 226. The following are the types of contest results for mixed martial arts events:

- (a) Submission by either of the following:
 - (i) Tap out: When a contestant physically uses his hand to indicate that he or she no longer wishes to continue.
 - (ii) Verbal tap out: When a contestant verbally announces to the referee that he or she does not wish to continue.
- (b) Technical knockout by any of the following:
 - (i) Referee stops the contest.
 - (ii) When an injury as a result of a legal maneuver is severe enough to terminate a contest.
 - (iii) If a contestant fails to answer the bell or does not want to continue the contest.
- (c) Knockout by failure to rise from the canvas.
- (d) Decision via scorecards including any of the following:
 - (i) Unanimous decision: When all 3 judges score the contest for the same contestant.
 - (ii) Split decision: When 2 judges score the contest for 1 contestant and 1 judge scores for the opponent.
 - (iii) Majority decision: When 2 judges score the contest for same contestant and only 1 judge scores a draw.
- (e) Draw including any of the following:
 - (i) Unanimous Draw: When all 3 judges score the contest a draw.
 - (ii) Majority Draw: When 2 judges score the contest a draw.
 - (iii) Split Draw: When 1 judge scores in favor of one contestant, 1 judge scores in favor of the other contestant, and 1 judge scores the contest as a draw.
- (f) Disqualification: When an injury sustained during competition as a result of an intentional foul is severe enough to terminate the contest.
- (g) Forfeit: When a contestant fails to begin competition or prematurely ends the contest for reasons other than injury or by indicating a tap out.
- (h) Technical draw: When an injury sustained during competition as a result of an intentional foul causes the injured contestant to be unable to continue and the injured contestant is even or behind on the scorecards at the time of stoppage.
 - (i) Technical decision: When the contest is prematurely stopped due to injury and a contestant is leading on the scorecards.
 - (j) No contest: When a contest is prematurely stopped due to accidental injury and a sufficient number of rounds have not been completed to render a decision via the scorecards.
- (k) Double knockout: If the referee determines that both contestants are in a condition that to continue might subject the contestants to serious injury, the referee shall stop the contest and the contest is considered a technical draw.

R 339.226b Types of contest results for kickboxing events.

Rule 226b. The following are the types of contest results for kickboxing events:

- (a) Points decision: When both contestants finish the scheduled rounds, victory is awarded by majority decision of the judging panel according to the following:
 - (i) Unanimous decision: When all 3 judges score the contest for the same contestant.

(ii) Split decision: When 2 judges score the contest for 1 contestant and 1 judge scores for the opponent.

(iii) Majority decision: When 2 judges score the contest for same contestant and only 1 judge scores a draw.

(b) Knockout: If a contestant is incapable of resuming the contest within the referee's 10-count due to legal strikes.

(c) Technical knockout by any of the following:

(i) If the official determines a contestant shows no will to or is incapable of resuming the contest due to a legal technique.

(ii) If the official determines the contestant can no longer intelligently defend himself or herself.

(iii) If the contestant does not leave his or her corner to take part in the contest following the sounding of the bell.

(iv) If the referee is of the opinion that 1 contestant is outmatched by the opponent and continuing the match would jeopardize the athlete's health and safety.

(v) If the contest is terminated for medical reasons due to injury resulting from a legal technique.

(vi) Where a contestant's corner indicates to the official that the contestant no longer wishes to continue the contest and throws in the towel. If a contestant or his or her second gives up the contest, the contestant or his or her second will indicate this to the referee or the department representative.

(d) Disqualification: The referee disqualifies the contestant for any reason including intentional, deliberate, flagrant, or repeated fouling.

(e) Draw: If, following the end of all rounds, at least 2 of the 3 judges do not pronounce 1 of the contestants a winner. If both contestants go down at the same time and neither can resume the contest within the referee's 10-count.

(f) No decision: If a contestant cannot continue as the result of an accidental foul and the bell has not yet sounded completing the second round of a 3-round contest or completed the third round of a 5-round contest or completed the fourth round of a contest scheduled for more than 5 rounds. If the referee decides, both contestants must be disqualified.

Rule 226c. The following are the types of contest results for muay thai events:

(a) Knockout: If a contestant is incapable of resuming the contest within the referee's 10-count due to legal strikes.

(b) Technical knockout by any of the following:

(i) When the referee orders the contest to stop because a contestant is not fit to continue.

(ii) When a contestant cannot answer the bell for the upcoming round.

(iii) The contestant is so badly cut that it is too dangerous to continue.

(c) Submission: When a contestant notifies the referee that he or she no longer wishes to continue.

(d) Unanimous decision: When all 3 judges score in favor of 1 contestant.

- (e) Split decision: When 2 judges score in favor of 1 contestant, while 1 judge scores in favor of the other contestant.
- (f) Majority decision: When 2 judges score in favor of 1 contestant and 1 judge determines it is a draw.
- (g) Disqualification: When a referee stops a contest due to a contestant's intentional foul or accidental foul.
- (h) Technical draw: In case of an intentional foul which causes injury, and the contest continues but is later stopped because of the initial foul, the referee shall stop the contest and declare a technical draw if the scores are equal or if the fouled contestant is behind on the cards.
- (i) Technical decision by any of the following:
- (i) In case of an intentional foul which causes injury, and the contest is continued but is later stopped because of the initial foul, the referee shall declare a victory for the fouled contestant if he or she is ahead on the cards.
- (ii) If a contest cannot continue due to an accidental foul but enough rounds have been completed, the referee shall declare a victory for the contestant ahead on the score cards.
- (j) No contest: In case of an accidental foul which causes injury so serious that the contest cannot be continued but less than enough rounds have been completed.
- (k) Draw: When scoring of the rounds results in a 3-way tie amongst the judges.
- (l) Majority draw: When 2 judges score the fight a draw and 1 judge declares 1 of the contestants the victor.

R 339.230 Judging; mixed martial arts.

- Rule 230. (1) Three judges shall evaluate all mixed martial arts contests.
- (2) The 10-Point Must Scoring System must be the standard system for scoring a contest. Under the 10-Point Must Scoring System, 10 points must be awarded to the winner of the round and 9 points or fewer must be awarded to the loser, except for a rare even round, which is scored (10-10).
- (3) Judges shall evaluate mixed martial arts techniques, such as effective striking, effective grappling, effective aggressiveness, control of the ~~ring~~ cage, ~~effective aggressiveness~~, and defense.
- (4) Evaluation must be made in the order in which the techniques appear in subrule (2) of this rule., ~~giving the most weight in scoring to effective striking, effective grappling, control of the ring, effective aggressiveness, and defense.~~ Effective striking and grappling must be the priority for round scoring. Effective aggressiveness must only be considered for round scoring if the judge does not see any advantage in effective striking and grappling. A judge may only take into consideration the control of the cage for round scoring when effective striking, grappling, and aggressiveness are even for both contestants. In the rare event that control of the cage is even for both contestants, a judge may take into consideration the effective defense of contestants.
- (5) Effective striking is judged by determining ~~the total number of legal heavy strikes landed by a contestant.~~ the legal blows that have an immediate or cumulative impact with the potential to contribute toward the end of the round. The immediate impact must weigh more heavily than the cumulative impact in a judge's scoring of a round.

(6) Effective grappling is judged by considering the amount of successful executions of a legal takedown and reversals. All of the following are examples of factors to consider: successful execution of takedowns, submission attempts, reversals, and the achievement of advantageous positions that produce immediate or cumulative impact with the potential to contribute to the end of the round. The immediate impact must weigh more heavily than the cumulative impact in a judge's scoring of a round. A successful takedown is not merely a changing of position, but the establishment of an attack from the use of the takedown. Top and bottom position fighters shall be assessed more on the impactful and effective result of their actions than their position.

~~-(a) Take downs from standing position to mount position.~~

~~-(b) Passing the guard to mount position.~~

~~-(c) Bottom position ring using an active, threatening guard.~~

(7) Ring area control is judged by determining who is dictating the pace, location, and position of the contest. All of the following are examples of factors to consider:

Effective aggressiveness is judged by considering a contestant aggressively making effective attempts to finish the contest. A judge shall not consider a contestant merely chasing after an opponent with no effective result or impact in the scoring of a round.

~~-(b) Taking down an opponent to force a ground contest.~~

~~-(c) Creating threatening submission attempts.~~

~~-(d) Passing the guard to achieve mount.~~

~~-(e) Creating striking opportunities.~~

(8) Effective aggressiveness means moving forward and landing a legal strike. The control of the cage is assessed by determining who is dictating the pace, place, and position of the contest.

(9) Effective defense means avoiding being struck, taken down, or reversed while countering with offensive attacks.

(10) The judges shall use the following objective scoring criteria when scoring a round:

(a) A round ~~is to~~ must be scored as a 10-10 round when both contestants appear to be competing evenly and neither contestant shows clear dominance in a round.

(b) A round ~~is to~~ must be scored as a 10-9 round when a contestant wins by a close margin, landing the greater number of effective legal strikes, grappling, and other maneuvers. effective strikes or utilizing effective grappling during the competition.

(c) A round ~~is to~~ must be scored as a 10-8 round when a contestant overwhelmingly dominates by striking or grappling in a round. 1 contestant has dominated the action of the round, had duration of the domination, and impacted his or her opponent with either effective strikes or effective grappling maneuvers that diminished the abilities of his or her opponent.

(d) A round ~~is to~~ must be scored as a 10-7 round when a contestant totally dominates by striking or grappling in a round. and stoppage is warranted.

(11) Judges shall use a sliding scale and recognize the length of time the contestants are either standing or on the ground, as follows:

(a) If the mixed martial arts contestant spent a majority of a round on the canvas, then both of the following apply:

- (i) Effective grappling is weighed first.
- (ii) Effective striking is weighed second.

(b) If the mixed martial arts contestant spent a majority of a round standing, then both of the following apply:

- (i) Effective striking is weighed first.
- (ii) Effective grappling is weighed second.

(c) If a round ends with a relatively even amount of standing and canvas competition, striking and grappling are weighed equally.

(12) Officials who score the contest shall mark their cards in ink or in indelible pencil at the end of each round.

(13) Officials who score the contest shall sign their scorecards.

(14) Except as provided in subrule (15) of this rule, at the conclusion of each contest, the judges shall total the points for each contestant and indicate the winner by writing the winner's name at the designated area on the scorecard and circle the same name where it appears on the top of the scorecard.

(15) If a contest is scored on individual scorecards for each round, the referee shall, at the end of a round, collect the scorecard for the round from each judge and shall give the scorecards to the department representative for computation.

(16) Referees and judges shall be discreet at all times and shall not discuss their decisions with anyone during an event.

(17) Unless the department representative determines that a computation of the scorecards shows a clerical or mathematical error giving the decision to the wrong contestant, the decision at the end of a mixed martial arts contest must not change. If such an error occurs, the department representative may change the decision.

(18) The referee shall collect the scorecards from the judges and give them to the department representative for tabulation. After the cards have been tabulated, the referee shall collect the tabulated scorecards and give them to the announcer, who shall announce the decision to the spectators.

(19) After a contest, the department representative shall collect the scorecards and tabulation sheets and give them to the promoter. The promoter shall maintain the scorecards and tabulation sheets for 1 year pursuant to section 54a of the act, MCL 338.3654a.

(20) If a referee becomes incapacitated and is unable to complete a mixed martial arts contest, then the other referee previously approved by the department for the event shall assume the duties of the referee.

(21) If a judge becomes incapacitated and is unable to complete the scoring of a mixed martial arts contest, then the referee shall call a time-out and a licensed judge previously approved by the department must score the contest from the point at which he or she assumed the duties of a judge. If the incapacity of a judge is not noticed during a round, the referee shall score that round and the substitute judge shall score all subsequent rounds.

R 339.230a Judging; kickboxing.

Rule 230a. (1) The 10-Point Must System must be the standard system of scoring a kickboxing contest. Under the 10-Point Must Scoring System, 10 points must be awarded to the winner of the round. The contestant who has lost the round may be awarded 9, 8, or 7 points. If a judge determines a round is an even round, a score of 10 shall be awarded to each contestant. Partial or incomplete rounds shall be scored. If no significant action has occurred, the round shall be scored as an even round.

(2) Judges shall evaluate kickboxing contests in the order of the following:

- (a) The total number of knockdowns landed by a contestant.
- (b) The cumulative effective impact a contestant has on an opponent.
- (c) The total number of clean scoring strikes landed by a contestant.
- (d) The ring area control or aggressiveness a contestant has over an opponent.

(3) Officials who score the contest shall mark their cards in ink or in indelible pencil at the end of each round.

(4) Officials who score the contest shall sign their scorecards.

(5) Except as provided in subrule (6) of this rule, at the conclusion of each contest, the judges shall total the points for each contestant and indicate the winner by writing the winner's name at the designated area on the scorecard and circle the same name where it appears on the top of the scorecard.

(6) If a contest is scored on individual scorecards for each round, the referee shall, at the end of a round, collect the scorecard for the round from each judge and give the scorecards to the department representative for computation.

(7) Referees and judges shall be discreet at all times and shall not discuss their decisions with anyone during an event.

(8) Unless the department representative determines that a computation of the scorecards shows a clerical or mathematical error giving the decision to the wrong contestant, the decision at the end of a kickboxing contest must not change. If such an error occurs, the department representative may change the decision.

(9) The referee shall collect the scorecards from the judges and give them to the department representative for tabulation. After the cards have been tabulated, the referee shall collect the tabulated scorecards and give them to the announcer, who shall announce the decision to the spectators.

(10) After a contest, the department representative shall collect the scorecards and tabulation sheets and give them to the promoter. The promoter shall maintain the scorecards and tabulation sheets for 1 year pursuant to section 54a of the act, MCL 338.3654a.

(11) If a referee becomes incapacitated and is unable to complete a kickboxing contest, then the other referee previously approved by the department for the event shall assume the duties of the referee.

(12) If a judge becomes incapacitated and is unable to complete the scoring of a kickboxing contest, then the referee shall call a time-out and a licensed judge previously approved by the department must score the contest from the point at which he or she assumed the duties of a judge. If the incapacity of a judge is not noticed during a round, the referee shall score that round and the substitute judge shall score all subsequent rounds.

R 339.230b Judging; muay thai.

Rule 230b. (1) Three judges shall evaluate all muay thai contests.

(2) The 10-Point Must Scoring System must be the standard system for scoring a muay thai contest. Under the 10-Point Scoring System, 10 points must be awarded to the winner of the round and 9 points or fewer must be awarded to the loser, except for a rare even round, which is scored 10-10.

(3) Judges shall evaluate the following muay thai techniques:

- (a) Effective striking.
- (b) Control of the ring.
- (c) Effective aggressiveness.
- (d) Effective defense.

(4) Evaluation must be made in the order in which the techniques appear in subrule (3) of this rule.

(5) Effective striking is judged by determining the total number of legal strikes landed by a contestant and the significance of these legal strikes.

(6) Ring cage area control is judged by determining who is dictating the pace, location, and position of the contest.

(7) Effective aggressiveness means moving forward and landing a legal strike.

(8) Effective defense means avoiding being struck while countering with offensive attacks.

(9) The judges shall use the following objective scoring criteria when scoring a round:

(a) A round is to be scored as a 10-10 round when both contestants appear to be competing evenly and neither contestant shows clear dominance in a round.

(b) A round is to be scored as a 10-9 round when a contestant wins by a close but clear margin, landing the greater number of effective legal strikes and other maneuvers.

(c) A round is to be scored as a 10-8 round when a contestant wins a round by a wide margin and damages his opponent.

(d) A round is to be scored as a 10-7 round when a contestant totally and completely dominates in a round and damages his or her opponent.

(10) Officials who score the contest shall mark their cards in ink or in indelible pencil at the end of each round.

(11) Officials who score the contest shall sign their scorecards.

(12) Except as provided in subrule (13) of this rule, at the conclusion of each contest, the judges shall total the points for each contestant and indicate the winner by writing the winner's name at the designated area on the scorecard and circle the same name where it appears on the top of the scorecard.

(13) If a contest is scored on individual scorecards for each round, the referee shall, at the end of a round, collect the scorecard for the round from each judge and shall give the scorecards to the department representative for computation.

(14) Referees and judges shall be discreet at all times and shall not discuss their decisions with anyone during an event.

(15) Unless the department representative determines that a computation of the scorecards shows a clerical or mathematical error giving the decision to the wrong contestant, the decision at the end of a muay thai contest must not change. If this error occurs, the department representative may change the decision.

(16) The referee shall collect the scorecards from the judges and give them to the department representative for tabulation. After the cards have been tabulated, the referee shall collect the tabulated scorecards and give them to the announcer, who shall announce the decision to the spectators.

(17) After a contest, the department representative shall collect the scorecards and tabulation sheets and give them to the promoter. The promoter shall maintain the scorecards and tabulation sheets for 1 year pursuant to section 54a of the act, MCL 338.3654a.

(18) If a referee becomes incapacitated and is unable to complete a mixed martial arts contest, then the other referee previously approved by the department for the event shall assume the duties of the referee.

(19) If a judge becomes incapacitated and is unable to complete the scoring of a muay thai contests, then the referee shall call a time-out and a licensed judge previously approved by the department must score the contest from the point at which he or she assumed the duties of a judge. If the incapacity of a judge is not noticed during a round, the referee shall score that round and the substitute judge shall score all subsequent rounds.
