Agency Report to JCAR-Page 3

	Name & Organization	Comments made at public hearing	Written Comments	Agency Rationale for Rule Change and Description of Change(s) Made	Rule number & citation changed
1	Michael Petropoulos, FFPC Compliance Officer, Fantasy Football Players Championship (FFPC)		Clarify that a management company license is only needed if a fantasy contest operator contracts with a third-party management company and is not required for an employee of a fantasy contest operator.	Modified 432.522 (3) and (4) to reduce the regulatory burden by clarifying that an individual who is an employee of a fantasy contest operator does not require a management company license to manage the day-to-day fantasy contest operations.	432.522(3)-(4)
2	Michael Petropoulos, FFPC Compliance Officer, Fantasy Football Players Championship (FFPC)		Provide an exemption to the prohibition on auto draft functionality for season-long fantasy contests in which fantasy contest players rank or queue athletes prior to the draft.	Modified 432.531 (3)(a)(i) to reduce the regulatory burden by allowing expanded use of auto draft functionality under certain conditions.	432.531(3)(a)(i)
3	Cory Fox, Government Affairs and Product Counsel Vice President, FanDuel		Request clarification on the meaning of a "pending" fantasy contest entry as used in 432.532h.	Added a new subrule (5) to reduce the regulatory burden by clarifying that a fantasy contest entry is considered pending if the outcome of the fantasy contest in which the fantasy contest entry was entered has not yet been determined.	432.532h(5)

Agency Report to JCAR-Page 4

4	Meredith C. Yu, Head of Compliance, Yahoo Fantasy Sports		Clarify or remove the requirement to dynamically monitor a fantasy contest player's location. Continual monitoring would be overly burdensome, both technologically and financially.	To reduce the regulatory burden, the dynamic monitoring requirement was eliminated.	432.539(2)
5	DraftKings Inc.		Request clarification on when age and identity verification is required.	Modified 432.541a(1) to reduce the regulatory burden by clarifying that a licensee must verify an individual's age and identity before allowing the individual to create an account and do either of the following, whichever occurs first: (a) make a deposit; or (b) enter or participate in a fantasy contest.	432.541a(1)
6	Cory Fox, Government Affairs and Product Counsel Vice President, FanDuel		Approaches to fraud prevention and anti-money laundering may change over time. Modify requirements regarding failed ACH deposits to allow more flexibility.	Modified 432.544b to reduce the regulatory burden and provide greater flexibility in investigating failed ACH deposits and identifying and resolving fraudulent ACH deposit attempts.	432.544b
