PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

R 338.7202 Training standards for identifying victims of human trafficking; requirements.

Rule 2. (1) Under section 16148 of the code, MCL 333.16148, an individual seeking licensure shall have completed training in identifying victims of human trafficking that satisfies the following standards:

(a) Training content must cover all the following:

(i) Understanding the types and venues of human trafficking in this state or the United States.

(ii) Identifying victims of human trafficking in healthcare settings.

(iii) Identifying the warning signs of human trafficking in healthcare settings for adults and minors.

(iv) Identifying resources for reporting the suspected victims of human trafficking.

(b) Acceptable providers or methods of training include any of the following:

(i) Training offered by a nationally recognized or state-recognized, health-related organization.

(ii) Training offered by, or in conjunction with, a state or federal agency.

(iii) Training obtained in an educational program approved for initial licensure, or by a college or university.

(iv) Reading an article related to the identification of victims of human trafficking that satisfies the requirements of subdivision (a) of this subrule and is published in a peer-reviewed journal, healthcare journal, or professional or scientific journal.

(c) Acceptable modalities of training include any of the following:

- (i) Teleconference or webinar.
- (ii) Online presentation.
- (iii) Live presentation.
- (iv) Printed or electronic media.

(2) The department may select and audit an individual and request documentation of proof of completion of training. If audited by the department, the individual shall provide an acceptable proof of completion of training, including either of the following:

(a) Proof of completion certificate issued by the training provider that includes the date, provider name, name of training, and individual's name.

(b) A self-certification statement by the individual. The certification statement must include the individual's name and either of the following:

(i) For training completed under subrule (1)(b)(i) to (iii) of this rule, the date, training provider name, and name of training.

(ii) For training completed under subrule (1)(b)(iv) of this rule, the title of article, author, publication name of the peer-reviewed journal, healthcare journal, or professional or scientific journal, and the date, volume, and issue of publication, as applicable.

R 338.7203 Limited license.

Rule 3. (1) An applicant for licensure under section 16903(3) of the code, MCL 333.16903, shall satisfy the requirements of the code, the rules promulgated under the code, and all the following requirements:

(a) Provide the required fee and a completed application on a form provided by the department.

(b) Provide proof, as directed by the department, verifying the completion of either of the following educational requirements, as specified under section 16909(1)(a)(i) or (ii) of the code, MCL 333.16909:

(i) A master's degree or higher graduate degree from an approved training program in marriage and family therapy that satisfies the accreditation standards under R 338.7211(1).

(ii) A master's degree or higher graduate degree from an approved college or university that satisfies the accreditation standards under R 338.7211(2) or (3) and completed the graduate-level courses in section 16909(1)(a)(ii) of the code, MCL 333.16909.

(c) Provide proof, as directed by the department, verifying the completion of a supervised clinical marriage and family therapy experience that satisfies the requirements of section 16909(1)(b) of the code, MCL 333.16909, in conjunction with the applicant's educational program. The supervised experience must be obtained either in a clinical practicum during graduate education or in a postgraduate marriage and family institute training program accredited under R 338.7211(2) or (3).

(2) A limited license is renewed annually and may not be renewed more than 5 times.

R 338.7205 Licensure requirements.

Rule 5. An applicant for a marriage and family therapist license shall satisfy the requirements of the code, the rules promulgated under the code, and all the following requirements:

(a) Provide the required fee and a completed application on a form provided by the department.

(b) Provide proof, as directed by the department, verifying the completion of either of the following educational requirements, as specified under section 16909(1)(a)(i) or (ii) of the code, MCL 333.16909:

(i) A master's degree or higher graduate degree from an approved training program in marriage and family therapy that satisfies the accreditation standards under R 338.7211(1).
